BRIEF HAPPENINGS OF NATIONS CAPITOL RELATED BY LETTER

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Some tariff statistics which President Taft's friends are to use in the coming campaign in his defense of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law have just been compiled by the bureau of statistics.

Up to June 30, the end of the fiscal year, the Payne law had been in operation just 35 months, which happens to be the total period of the Wilson law. The figures show that whereas merchandise to the value of 30.0 millions of dollars came in absolutely duty free under the Wilson law 67.7 millions in the total for the Payne law in the same period.

The per cent of importations that came in free under the Wilson act was 48.8, under the Payne 51.2. The average rate of ad valorem duty under the Payne law is 41.2, under the Wilson 42.8. The average amount of revenue from customs receipts per month under the Payne law has been 26.5. Under the Wilson law it was 13.9.

On the ground floor of the senate wing of the capitol is a restaurant, with two special rooms reserved for the solons and a big dining room open to the public. There are times when charges for some items on the bill of fare rise to the altitude of the higher priced restaurants in New York—Delmonico and Sherry, for instance.

There were smiles on the faces of "regulars" among visitors when they spied an item on the bill of fare setting forth "sweet corn, 25 cents." It brought to their minds visions of dazzling and steaming cobs reposing on a plate. They ordered corn and beheld with considerable surprise the serving of one lonely cob of very ordinary dimensions for the quarter mentioned in the bill of fare. Next of the tempting novelties introduced on the bill was "new potatoes, 20 cents."

"Well, well," murmured one of the regulars, "a bowlful of new potatoes would certainly be excellent for lunch."

So he gave the order and the colored emissary returned in due time and set before him a small bowl containing two potatoes of what seemed to him, rather limited cubical contents.

"Two potatoes at 10 cents apiece," he observed. "At that rate they must be deemed by the management a luxury fit only for the palates of the rich."

The restaurant is owned by the senate and is operated by a manager. It loses money because the bulk of the patronage is limited to a couple of hours at lunch time. The deficit is made good by withdrawals from the senate fund to meet contingent expenses.

Rev. J. M. Swander of the Presbyterian church and Mrs. Swander, arrived this morning from Los Angeles.
